CLUB NOTES

TODAY, in our last home League match of the season, we are pleased to welcome Bury, famous old Lancashire battlers, founded in 1885 and twice F.A. Cup winners. Mr. Bob Stokoe, present manager of Bury who will be remembered as the very capable half back who earned an F.A. Cup winner's medal with Newcastle about ten years ago, has twice seen Charlton in action this season and on both occasions they played brilliantly with only ten men. He watched us in the F.A. Cup replay at Middlesbrough when Mike Bailey suffered a broken leg, and Bob was present at Bolton the other week when Charlton took a point from the Wanderers after losing Mick Kenning.

In today's vital match Charlton will be anxious to prove to Mr. Stokoe that they can also play brilliantly with the full eleven men. It's an important match for both clubs, Bury, like ourselves, not being free of worries. Tomorrow, up at Gigg Lane, the teams meet again in the return match. It means that Charlton's players must report at The Valley early for a spot of training before catching the 12.25 p.m. train from St. Pancras for Manchester. After the game at Bury the Charlton team will leave Manchester at 1 a.m. on Wednesday morning, getting back in London soon after 5 a.m.

THREE AWAY GAMES TO FINISH

An encouraging thought in these two holiday games with Bury is that Charlton took all four points from The Shakers last season, winning 3–0 at The Valley and 2–0 at Bury. If we can repeat the dose, it will be very useful indeed, for after today's game Charlton's last League matches are all away from home—a tremendous task for a club needing every possible point.

Club badges (2/6d.) for the lapel or tie, can be obtained today from the Development Fund hut behind the terracing at the laundry end, or at the Supporters' Club hut behind the covered terracing. The badges and special ties (12/6d.) are in aid of the John Hewie Testimonial Fund.

INTERNATIONAL ON THE TERRACES

We have pleasure in reproducing the following letter received from Mr. H. May of Crooke Road, London, S.E.8:

"During the recent game with Cardiff City at The Valley we were soon chatting on the terraces with a devout Cardiff fan and his companion. Both appeared to be followers of football over many years and the Welshmen knew them all—Farquarson, Nelson, Blair, Hardy, Len Davies, etc., and we all recalled happenings of the past.

"At half time, I leaned across the Welshman and asked his companion if he, too, was a Welshman. 'No, I'm an Irishman,' he replied. Unbuttoning his overcoat, he added: 'Would you like to see an English F.A. Cup winner's medal?' I fingered the medal on his watch chain, but in the half light I could not make out the inscription.

"'Who were you playing for?' I queried. 'Sheffield United, and my name is Gillespie,' he replied. Billy Gillespie! I gasped, and the gentleman, at my request, removed his hat and there was the bald head which on so many occasions I had seen nod the ball down to the dazzling feet of Freddie Tunstall."

CAPPED 25 TIMES BY IRELAND

"At the end of the game when we were all wondering why the score wasn't 3–2 to Charlton, we had a good look at the medal. The inscription read: 'Presented to W. Gillespie—Sheffield United v. Cardiff City —1925.' Billy, capped 25 times by Ireland, told us he has lived at Bexley for some seven years, and often visits The Valley.

"We shook hands, Billy waved Cheerio, and slipped away—as sprightly a man of 73 as ever you'll see. As he disappeared, one of my boys asked: 'What was he like, dad?' 'What was Billy Gillespie like? Gather round' (just my chance, wasn't it!). (Signed) H. May."

The England international team will play Young England at Arsenal Stadium on Friday, April 30th, kick-off 7.30 p.m. Admission prices are 5/– (ground), 6/– (standing enclosures), 10/– (lower tier unreserved seats), Seats at 12/6d., 15/– and 20/– can be booked in advance. Send application with remittance and stamped addressed envelope, to: Box Office, Arsenal Stadium, Highbury, London, N.5.

TWO NEW YOUNG VALIANTS

Two young Midlanders have just signed up as apprentice professionals for Charlton.

They are John Bingham, an outside-left from Ilkeston, and Bob Curtis, a wing half from Langwith. Both are 15 years of age.

The lads come south with a strong recommendation from our Midland representative, and we welcome them to The Valley fold.

OUR VISITORS

Here are brief pen pictures of some Bury players:

CHRIS HARKER (goalkeeper). Signed from Aberdeen some three seasons ago after he had been a junior with Newcastle. Was manager Bob Stokoe's first signing with Bury. Harker was born within hailing distance of Newcastle's ground.

BRIAN GALLAGHER (right-back). Born at Oldham, Brian joined Bury from Ashton United, the Lancashire Combination club, and became a professional.

BRIAN EASTHAM (left back). Born at Bolton and joined Bury from a local works team. Well built and extremely good in the air, Eastham has been a Bury first team regular for several seasons.

BRIAN TURNER (right half). Born at Manchester and was discovered in schoolboy football there. Commenced his playing career as a forward. Married with two children.

EDDY COLQUHOON (centre half). Comes from Prestonpans and was selected for the Scottish youth team last season. Equally at home at wing half.

HARRY BUNNER (centre half). Born at Manchester. Tough and uncompromising. A firm favourite with the Gigg Lane crowd.

VINCENT LEECH (left half). Joined Bury from Blackburn Rovers two seasons ago. A Lancastrian from Rochdale. Now lives at Bacup, near Burnley. Has also appeared in the inside forward positions.

ALEC ALSTON (outside right). Born at Preston and joined Bury from Preston North End two season ago at a big fee. Can play inside and on either wing.

BILL GRIFFIN (inside forward). Was secured from Sheffield Wednesday for a big fee nearly two years ago. Came into his own last season and is now an established player.

ERNEST YARD (centre forward). Born at Stranraer and was secured from Partick Thistle last season for a four figure fee. Previously played for Kilmarnock.

COLIN BELL (inside left). Born at Heselden and was previously with Horden Colliery. Bury secured him in the face of keen competition. Not yet 20 years of age.

PAUL DURRANT (outside left). Formerly with Wolves. Stands 5 ft. 7 ins., weighs 10 st. 7 lbs.

Echoes across the Valley

GORDON JAGO visited The Valley the other day and looked remarkably fit. Charlton's former centre-half who left The Valley in 1962 to take over as manager-coach of Eastbourne United, is still happy at the seaside town and is much in demand as a soccer coach. Eastbourne United were members of the Metropolitan League up to last season, but now operate in the amateur Athenian League. Gordon, now the proud father of a baby girl, wishes to be remembered to his many friends at The Valley.

ONE OF CHARLTON'S oldest supporters has passed on. Albert Buckingham lived nearby at Woolwich Road and rarely missed a game at The Valley. He was a 1914-18 war veteran and could recall Charlton's earliest teams. All the present day Charlton players remember Albert who, until his last illness, would visit The Valley ever morning. Seated on his shooting stick, he would watch the training work and had a cheery smile and word for all who spoke to him.

EDDIE FIRMANI has just completed 150 League games for Charlton in the course of which he has totalled around 80 goals. We noticed Eddie watching Millwall in the recent game with Aldershot at New Cross. The big attraction for Eddie, of course, was the play of Jim Ryan, his former Charlton colleague, in the Millwall attack. Jim didn't find the net in that particular match, but he made the one which set the Lions on the road to victory.

JIM RYAN might be playing against his old team mates on Monday, May 3rd. On that date Millwall will be playing Charlton at New Cross in the Kent Challenge Cup. Several Millwall officials were at The Valley on April 3rd to see Charlton defeat Ipswich. They included directors Mr. Jimmy Seed (the former Charlton manager), Mr. Bill Nelan, and secretary Mr. D. G. Borland.

LESLIE SURMAN, Charlton's very promising 18 year old goalkeeper, suffered a severe ankle injury in the Metropolitan League game at West Ham the other week—his third injury since he signed for Charlton from Tamworth early this season. Les. is making good progress but it is by no means certain that he will play again this season. However, he should be fit to accompany the team of Charlton youngsters to Holland in May.

STEWART SCULLION, Charlton's new professional right winger, twisted an ankle in the Football Combination game with Southend, which put him out of action for a week or so, but the former Chesham United player is fit again and showing his paces. Peter Jenkins, the 18-year-old full back who signed for Charlton on the same day as Scullion, was also unable to assist his new club the following week. In Peter's case, an attack of tonsilitis was the cause. Young Jenkins served an apprenticeship with Chelsea.

THE GAME AT MIDDLESBROUGH on Saturday, April 24th is an important one for Charlton and it would be nice if a good muster of Charlton fans made the journey. British Railways have arranged excursion facilities, the train leaving Kings Cross at 11.55 p.m. on the Friday night and arriving at Middlesbrough at 5.39 a.m. Saturday. The return train leaves Middlesbrough at 11.29 p.m. on Saturday night, arriving back at Kings Cross at 5.9 a.m. Sunday morning.
